

Florida Homestead Evacuation, Trailer & Documents Checklist

Destinations, loading, vehicles, records and private information

Use this as a planning aid, then add the details that belong to your family, animals and property. Check current official instructions during an active event.

Destination and route

- ☐ Confirm a destination that accepts the people, species, vehicles and trailers in the plan.
- ☐ Record a primary and backup route using current official information.
- ☐ Choose an early decision point; do not wait until animal loading becomes dangerous.
- ☐ Confirm a backup driver and communication plan.

Vehicle and trailer

- ☐ Practice calm loading in good weather.
- ☐ Inspect tires, spare, lights, brakes, hitch equipment, registration and keys.
- ☐ Label carriers and equipment and preserve safe ventilation.
- ☐ Pack familiar feed, safe water equipment, records and necessary medications.

Private records

- ☐ Store identification, insurance, animal records and photographs securely offline and offsite.
- ☐ Keep important phone numbers on paper in case a device cannot connect.
- ☐ Do not publish routes, addresses, security details or sensitive documents online.
- ☐ Follow official evacuation orders and current local instructions.
